

JATI-Journal of Southeast Asian Studies is a multi-discipline peer-reviewed international journal on Southeast Asian social sciences and humanities published twice a year by the Department of Southeast Asian Studies, Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, University of Malaya, Kuala Lumpur. JATI employs a double-blind review concerned with research results in the social sciences and humanities in the area of Southeast Asia. JATI is indexed in Web of Science Emerging Sources Citation Index (ESCI), ASEAN Citation Index (ACI), MYCite and UDLedge: Social Science & Humanities Citation Index (SS&HCI). Contributions in English, 7000-8000 words for the full paper, 5000 words for review article and 1500 words for a book review. All research papers must include a literature review, theoretical framework and methods, findings and discussions. All citations and references must follow the latest APA style (version 7).

eISSN: 2600-8653
Print ISSN: 1823-4127
Publisher: University of Malaya
Publication Type: Online
Publication frequency: 2 time(s) per year, June and December
No. of articles: 10 - 12 per issue

Publication Ethics and Malpractices

Focus and Scope

INDEXING

About The Journal

Special Issue 2018 Rebranding of Southeast Asia

JATI Editorial Board

Contact Us